

Dr. James Lawsing, Orthopedic Surgery, Joins CRMC Medical Staff

The Administration of Cortland Regional Medical Center is pleased to welcome Dr. James F. Lawsing, Orthopedic Surgery, to its medical staff. Dr. Lawsing is fellowship trained in hip and knee joint replacement surgery, arthroscopy, and general orthopedic surgery. He joins Dr. Linda Martin and Dr. Bruce Greene at Regional Medical Practice P.C., Orthopedics, 1095 Commons Avenue in Cortland. Dr. Lawsing can be contacted by calling 758-3750.

Dr. Lawsing brings over 30 years experience as a Board Certified orthopedic surgeon to the Cortland community. Most recently he was a member of an orthopedic practice in Bangor, ME. Prior to that Dr. Lawsing had a private orthopedic practice. During his time in Bangor, Dr. Lawsing was on the medical staff of Eastern Maine Medical Center and served the facility in various capacities through the years, including Director of Medical Education and Chief of Orthopedic Services.

“I think Cortland is an excellent fit for me,” said Dr. Lawsing. “The hospital has excellent people to work with and a supportive administration. My wife and I enjoy skiing, sailing, golf, tennis, and hiking so Central New York is ideal for us.”

Originally from Schenectady, NY, Dr. Lawsing earned his medical degree from Boston University Medical School. He completed his residency in Orthopedic Surgery at St. Luke’s Hospital Center in New York City. He then furthered his training with a clinical fellowship in Constructive Orthopedic Surgery at New England Baptist Hospital in Boston.

Dr. Lawsing’s many professional affiliations include the American College of Surgeons, the Eastern Orthopedic Association, the Arthroscopy Association of North America, and the American College of Sports Medicine. He has been honored by the American Medical Association with its Physician Recognition Award and by the American Academy of Family Physicians for his teaching work in family practice.

Dr. Lawsing and his wife Lisa, a nurse practitioner, now make their home in Homer. The Lawsings have four adult children: Brooke, Courtney, James, and Hillary.

